

Please do something
to stop Sinclair Broadcasting from force its stations
to air a so-called documentary so near
the election that tries to smear John Kerry.

And then please make sure nothing like
this ever happens
again. At the very least, this is a
blatant example
concentrated media
ownership can be used to serve a political end.
